ON FIFTEEN CENTS A DAY

Army Commissary Officer Says Man
Can Live.

Will 15 cents' worth of food supply plentifully a laborer who works hard for eight hours, or a soldier who fights or marches all day? That is a question which is at present bothering United States army officers. Maj. William H. Bean, of Omaha, chief of commissary of the department of Missouri, thinks that he has solved the problem of feeding soldiers in his department plentifully upon 15 cents a day. To substantiate his opinion the major is feeding 10 of the most able-bodied laborers he can find, stipulating that not more than five cents will be spent on any one meal and giving assurances that when five days are up not one will find fault with the fare.

The first day the 10 dined at the major's table. Hundreds of working-men crowded about the commissary department to see what the verdict would be and what was the verdict of the men on whom the experiment was conducted. Roast beef, brown gravy, baked potatoes, bacon, beans, tomatoes, pickles, prunes, two kinds of bread and customary seasonings were on the bill. The major's guests were enthusiastic over the feast.

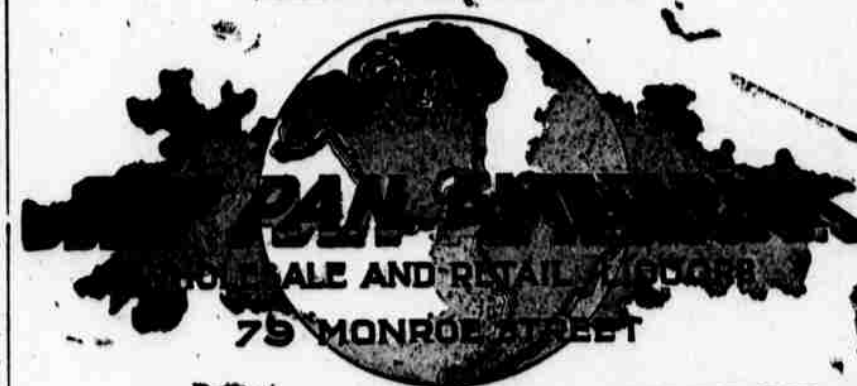

"The idea was suggested to me by the thousands of families who find support on laborers' wages difficult and by criticisms of those who see in bills for the army's support that American soldiers cannot live well," said Mr. Bean.

To Sterilize Drinking Water.

Here is the latest receipt for sterilizing drinking water and killing off the typhoid germ: Put four drops of tincture of iodine in half a gallon of water and permit it to stand at least half an hour. By the end of that time it will be as harmless as distilled water. Many persons have not the facilities for making distilled water. Boiling it also entails a certain amount of trouble. In either case the water is flat and unpleasant to the taste. The few drops of iodine impart practically no taste to the amount of water they sterilize, and at the same time they answer every medicinal purpose.

About the time love lets up on a man rheumatism takes a fall out of him.
